Dear Ms. Morrison;

The annual staff thanks you for your years of work with us.
No photographer has been as amiable and adept in handling students as you were. Your photography has reproduced very well and has been kind to those of us who are camera shy.

Thank you, Ms. Morrison.

FOREWORD

The theme for the 1970 Coelum is "Recreation." Skykomish is situated high in the Cascade Range, thus making it an ideal tourist stop. From spring to winter, the valleyites fish, hunt, ski, hike, and camp in the most scenic areas in the state. In many parts of the United States the ecological balance is desperate; here, in the Skykomish area, the air is clear, and streams and lakes abound with life all in a recreational area which is health giving and natural.

Dodging the puddles.

On a drizzly Friday morning, September 19, the students sallied forth to Puyallup for a day at the Fair. Skykomish High School allows students to attend this fair every other year, so each class has at least two trips to a big fair. In addition to this trip this year, the students heard the Seattle Symphony play at Snohomish, saw VOLPONE, and Elizabethan play given by the Repertory Theater in Seattle, and seeing several movies. After enjoying a typical rainy Washington afternoon riding rides, seeing sights, and splashing in puddles, the students decided to forego the evening rodeo and settle for dinner and the long, weary trip home.

WE HAVE SPIRIT

The four Cheerleaders this year are Joanna Javier, Dianne Edgar, Becky Irish, and Sharilyn Gibson. Since the beginning of the basketball season these girls have done their best to arouse school spirit. They have had pep assemblies, prepared skits, and made posters to boost the school's moral. They traveled with the team to all of the out-of-town games, cheered them on to victory at the District Tournament in Sedro Woolley on February 24 - 28, and followed them to state.

VARSITY SQUAD

The Skykomish Rockets had a grueling season this year with a very tough schedule. Winning 18 and only losing 8 was a feather in Sky's hat. The Rockets have had a tremendous home game record in the last two years, winning 16 games and only losing 4. Skykomish played one of the best teams this year, Peshastin-Dryden, rated first in the state, and in one contest losing only by three points. The disappointment of losing the game with Coupeville in the district tournament, then turning around and beating Darrington to rocket on to the state tournament at Spokane gave Sky one of the top reversals in the "B" League. The boys worked hard, played hard, and deserve all the credit they can get for doing such a fine job this year.

Skykomish Gains State

By WILLIS TUCKER
Staff Writer

Skykomish rocketed past Darrington 65-62 in a Northwest B league district playoff game Friday night to earn a berth in the state tournament in Spokane this week.

For the first time this season the Rockets won it at the free throw line. Darrington had 25 field goals to Sky's 19, but the Loggers from the valley popped in 27 out of 40 free throws, 67 per cent, while the Rockets were hitting on only 12 out of 22 chances, 54 per cent.

Doug Gibson and Brad Pollowich had 21 points for the winners and Rick Green of Darrington paced all scorers with 30 points. The Loggers took 69 shots from the floor and grabbed 29 rebounds.

Darrington led at the quarter 14 and at halftime 33-29. At the buzzer to end the third period the Rockets tied the game at 40 and outscored Darrington 12 to 12 in the final heat.

The wrecking crew from Skykomish made Darrington play a different type of ball, scrambling, passing, shooting from the hip. It was Skykomish but it was not good. The Rockets were everywhere, hounding the Loggers until they couldn't take a deep breath. They were behind them, able teaming, outjumping and harassing until they hazed Darrington into playing the game the way Skykomish wanted it played. It appeared at times that Sky had nine players on the floor, so effective was their harassing tactics.

Sky made only three field goals in the first quarter but nailed eight free throws to stay close to the Loggers. Dave Meyer had 8 for 8 at the free throw line and as a team the Rockets made 9 for 9 in the third period. They took only eight shots from the floor in the final period but made five of them good. Darrington took 19 shots in that final, frantic period, and hit on six of them. But the Loggers committed 23 personal fouls to the Rockets 16 and Skykomish didn't miss many one-and-ones.

Wednesday Skykomish joins Coupeville as the Northwest B League's representatives at the state B tournament in Spokane. Both teams will play both Wednesday and Thursday at least. This is the "good" tournament in which all 16 teams meet the same four days and battle it out toe-to-toe until a winner is crowned Saturday night. The Northwest Bs have two chances in 16 of being that winner.

Skykomish 14 15 21 15—65
Darrington 17 16 17 12—62
Skykomish (65)—Steve Auckland 10, Dave Meyer 12, Doug Gibson 21, Monty Richter 1, Brad Pollowich 21.
Darrington (62)—Randy Ashe 10, Rick Green 30, Steve Wood 5, Kevin Ashe 6, Carl Hoglund 2, Mark Wicken 9.
Shooting percentages: Skykomish, field goals, 42% (19 for 45); Free throws, 69% (27 for 39); Rebounds 24. Darrington: Field goals, 36% (25 for 69); Free throws, 54% (12 for 22); Rebounds, 20.

Sky Duels Peshastin-Dryden

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

No top-ranked teams will bump heads in opening day of the 28th annual Class B high school basketball tournament in Spokane Wednesday, but two powers, Peshastin-Dryden and Reardan landed in the same bracket.

The four-day annual March madness will produce a new champ. Last year's titlist, St. John, which had taken the crown twice in a row, fell by the wayside in district play.

Peshastin-Dryden, ranked No. 1 in the Associated Press poll with a 22-1 record, swings into action in the fifth game against unrated Skykomish (16-8).

Reardan (23-1), tied with Coulee City (22-1) for second in the poll standings, follows in game No. 6 against Zillah (20-4). Coulee City, in the upper bracket, meets Curlew (23-4) in the second game of the tourney.

The 16-team field only has three of last year's top eight finishers — Peshastin-Dryden, which was sixth, Naselle, fourth and Kittitas, fifth.

All six AP poll teams made it to the state meet.

Here is the opening-day draw, made Sunday, with game times, season's records and poll rankings:

At the left is Dave Meyer and at the right is Doug Gibson. Co-captains of the basketball team, they are shown here holding the second place trophy they brought home from the District Tournament held at Sedro Woolley. Another senior co-captain is Steve Auckland, not pictured.

Darrington, Sky Breeze

By WILLIS TUCKER
Staff Writer

The Class "B" tournament openers at Sedro-Woolley last night went exactly according to the script. Dr. Watson has a better chance of outwitting Sherlock Holmes than Orcas and Friday Harbor had of beating Darrington and Skykomish.

Darrington crushed Orcas Island, 74-42, and Skykomish rocketed past Friday Harbor, 84-55.

The winners advanced to the second round of the Class "B"

District tournament tonight, but the going gets tougher. Darrington tries LaConner, Northwest B League champs, and Skykomish takes on second place Coupeville — until last week, rated fifth in the state poll.

Losers tonight play off Friday night for the dubious privilege of once more testing the No. 1 or No. 2 team as a back-door entry to the state B tournament in Spokane next week. Tonight's winners advance to the championship contest Friday night.

Last night Darrington easily walked away from Orcas, which played give-a-way with 27 turnovers. The Loggers turned the ball over 18 times but Orcas didn't take advantage like Darrington did.

When Rick Green was smothered and held to two free throws, far below his average of 17 points a game, Kevin Ashe took over in style. He pumped in 14 out of 18 field goal attempts for a 78 per cent shooting average, added two of three free throw attempts and easily walked off with scoring honors with 30 points. He also grabbed 14 rebounds. John Nicol paced Orcas with 14.

The Loggers hit 30 of their 66 field goal attempts and 14 of 26 free throws.

Skykomish stuttered to a 19-16 quarter lead but when Brad Pollow pumped in seven field goals in the second period it was all over for Friday Harbor.

Steve Auckland, the 5-foot-6-inch gyro, declared war on the Vikings in the third period and put on a one-man show as he stole the ball six times and three of those times raced in for lay-ups that broke the game wide open. By halftime the Rockets were out front comfortably with a 41-25 lead and showed no signs of slowing down. After three quarters they led 68-35 and the bench was cleared.

Rick prepares to get tip off.

Skykomish High School junior varsity basketball team had a very successful 69-70 season. The J.V. team is getting ready to take over as the varsity members next season since three of our first five members are seniors. This year's team had a very successful game record, scoring 14 wins and only losing 6. Rockets head coach Bill Brodhead had been working with the J.V. team this year in hope of bringing the new players around. With the upcoming junior varsity members the Rockets are assured of another fine basketball season.

Determination keeps the boys going through the whole game.

Rockets' acquired a new teammate for the Darrington game. Phil has a new hero!

Skillful make-up is the goal of every play cast and production staff. Besides checking and ordering make-up, the staff must correlate facial contour with role projection so preparation, study and "dry (grease) runs" precede the play. In the upper left, Jo Javier is finishing Kim Richter's make-up while others playing student roles are being helped by Rena Monaghan. In the middle picture Dianne Edgar waits her turn while Matt Bishop, a teacher, gets a slight facial aging. On the right, Mrs. Fay loaned her talents as an art teacher to add a bit of grotesquerie to the spaceman (Dave Meyer) make-up. In the lower right David Meyer braces himself for a grease job.
